The screenshot shows a web application interface. At the top, a dark grey header displays "Welcome, Douglas G. Edwards President [logout]". Below this, the main content area is divided into two sections. On the left, there is a "Main control" section with a blue cloud and database icon, and a "CSV control" section with a plus sign icon and two menu items: "Destination Email" and "Search & Export CSV's". On the right, there is a "Manage User" section with a search bar containing "7057251642", two date filters "2015-09-26" and "2015-09-28", and an "Export" button. At the bottom right, there are two smartphone mockups: one displaying a mobile app interface with various office locations and phone numbers, and another displaying a blue elephant logo with stars and a blue donkey logo with stars.

Consolidated databases automatically assembled! From just a few to thousands of inbound prospects!
